

Family Student Evaluation Rubric

Project Objective or Performance	Student Objective or Performance	4 Exemplary	3 Accomplished	2 Developing	1 Beginning	Score
This project will show students the interdisciplinary nature of learning.	Students will create and use links. Students will participate in discussion.
The project promotes student centered information gathering.	Students will use multimedia research
The project promotes student centered information analysis.	Students will determine how information relates to their topic and will formulate connections.
The project engages students in a system of information evaluation. (truth, quality, validity)	Students will use multiple resources and discern the quality of the information.
The project promotes student centered communication of findings	Students will critically synthesize, paraphrase, and summarize information.
The project promotes self and peer assessment.	Students will complete peer and self evaluation sheets.
The project displays quality in the design and presentation of materials.	Students will use correct mechanics in written work. Students will create projects that are accurate, clear, creative, and functional.
The project makes appropriate use of technology.	Students will take part in creating a web page using Image Composer and Front Page.
The project is useful to others.
Total						